

Technicolor Gardener

Strange Blossom LLC

Where building healing gardens begins.

Do you suffer from anxiety, burn out, brain fog, lack of energy, lack of concentration, poor skin conditions, arthritis, body inflammation, dental or gum issues, or just a general lack of feeling good?

Hello, my name is Alicia LaCava and I am here to offer services that promote a healthier, happier body and a deeper connection with nature and your own backyard.

If you're looking for relief, I can help.

I have suffered with skin conditions, stomach inflammation, arthritis, muscle tension, anxiety, and lack of luster in the past. Believe me I know how it feels when your whole body feels like it's going haywire and running out of gas. But before you reach for the medicine cabinet consider growing your treatment routine. I build customized health healing packages and specialty healing gardens directed towards your specific needs to bring you back up to feeling your best again.

I create healing gardens that are customized to fit your physical, mental, or spiritual distress needs. Using nature, I can create many forms of healing remedies to help aid in soothing many ailments.

Healing the body mind & spirit

The Technicolor Gardener is expanding into a new realm of garden offerings. With the creation of Strange Blossom LLC, I will be adding a variety of services and products available for creating wellness in the body and mind through physical service, product access and garden cultivation.

What I can offer

*Consultations to create a customized healing garden to aid in addressing any mental, physical, or spiritual unease you may be experiencing. Gardens may include perennials, vegetables, wildflowers, herbs, and cannabis.

*Subscription services for healthy product bundles to use in everyday health and wellness support.

*Pain and energy field relief sessions and products.

*Access to ecofriendly retailers that offer a wide range of goods and services at special discounts when you're a subscribed client.

Pain & Spiritual Relief

Combining a Holistic Healing certification with a 45 hour Leading & Energy work certification, I've created an appointed session that targets disruptions beyond topicals and consumables.

Integrating aroma, oils, touch and spiritual / mental energy work, the body is guided into a space that promotes healing from within.

Food is thy medicine

Modern medicine as we know it had to start somewhere. As a matter of fact, today's pharmaceuticals are simply mirrored and reproduced compounds that were originally discovered in nature. However, what we lose when we take a pharmaceutical alone are all the balancing compounds that accompany each plant's full power and healing potential. We lose all the balancing properties that play a huge role in healing fully when we only use a singular processed medicine.

Create gardens that work with your body and your needs to create balance and health organically. Heal from your diet with customized recipes for you and your family.
